Class description: This course will introduce art skills to the young elementary student. We will begin with the proper use of colors with shading and progress into drawing. The class will be light and fun to romance the love of art in your child. Every individual will walk away from each class with a simple assignment to practice and return the following week. The goal is not to give the parent just one more thing to keep on top of, but an opportunity to build on the skill learned in class. This gives the child a chance to develop coordination and motor skills in order to move on toward more in depth lessons.
